SWISSÔTEL NANKAI OSAKA INTRODUCES THE ULTIMATE JAPANESE SPA EXPERIENCE, WITH THE OPENING OF E'H2O SPA.

Osaka, April 3, 2018 - Swissôtel Nankai Osaka is proud to announce an opening of a brand new spa facility e'H2O SPA on 4th April, 2018. For a truly authentic Japanese experience, the Hotel's previous Japanese private fine dining rooms and a chashitsu tea room were completely refurbished and converted into the Spa facility.

The treatment menu is a combination of Japanese inspired treatments and an exclusive range of face, body and head treatments using e'H2O's original organic skincare brand "Nature Motic" and "HAS", Japan's renowned medical skincare brand. The Spa's streamlined treatment menu is designed to welcome all to experience the calm, soothing energy of zen spirit.

The treatment rooms are adorned with beautiful tatami floors and ornate yukimi shoji, along with tokonoma alcove with a hanging scroll featuring traditional Japanese artwork. To incorporate the sense of nature, some of the rooms feature the view of tsuboniwa courtyard garden and sekitei rock garden, while a chashitsu tea room converted into a treatment room features all the details of traditional tea ceremony room such as nijiriguchi door and mizuya-nagashi, creating the space filled with a sense of calm, peace, and serenity.

"We are excited to present our new unique spa spaces filled with a wide range of traditional Japanese elements," said Bernd Schneider, General Manager, Swissôtel Nankai Osaka. "Guests will be treated to the most authentic Japanese spa experience, while being pampered in a zen atmosphere. With over 80 percent of our guests visiting from overseas, providing the truly authentic Japanese relaxation experience will create lasting memories."

Special Offer

In celebrating e'H2O SPA opening, the Hotel offers a complimentary one-day pass to the Hotel's Pürovel Spa & Sport, which includes free access to a fully-equipped gym, sauna, indoor pool and Jacuzzi, to those who book a treatment at e'H2O SPA by 30th April, 2018.
